Miss Julia Kellogg, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Kellogg, received a perfect ovation from society yesterday at her coming-out tea. The occasion brought together not only army friends, but representatives of diplomatic and resident circles generally. The drawing rooms were fragrant with flowers, dozens and dozens of bouquets having been sent the debutante, and which covered the mantels and piano. Mrs. Kellogg wore a jetted black net, and the debutante was charming in a youthful dress of white crepe, trimmed with silver. Mrs. Sheridan and her daughters, Mrs. Clark and the Misses Clark and Mrs. William Thompson Harris assisted in the reception. The marriage of Miss Jeannette Crist, Two Notable Additions to the Debutante

The marriage of Miss Jeannette Crist, caughter of Mrs. William Hague of Shreve, Ohio, to Mr. F. A. Bock of this city, took place at St. Albans Church, Wednesday evening, November 22. Miss Bessie Finney of Shreve, Ohio, was maid of honor. The bride and groom were preceded by the Episcopal choir and maid of honor. Rev. Brathenal, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Miss Kellogg and Miss Leupp Pre-assembled yesterday to do honor to Miss Ethel Leupp, whose debut tea was an interesting event of the afternoon. The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leupp, 1813 16th street, was profusely adorned with plants and flowers, the bouquets sent the tall young beauty making a large and fragrant collection by themselves. Mrs. Leupp was gowned in black and the handsome debutante wore white organdie, trimmed in lace and ribbons. Assisting the hostess in her pleasing duties were her sister, Mrs. Lewis Murdock of New York; Mrs. Charles Larrabee, Miss Saille Walker, Miss Alice Foster and Miss Isabelle Gregory. A few of the many guests were the Chinese minister, Mrs. Schurman, Mrs. David J. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. Henry Martin Hoyt, Assistant Secretary Vanderlip, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill E. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Ellen Middleton, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas W. Middleton of Springfield, Prince George's county, Md., and Mr. Garritson Brickerd of the same place took place Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock in Perkins' Chapel, Springfield, Md., in the presence of a gathering that filled the church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Steele, pastor of Perkins' Chapel. Decorations of evergreens and flowers were in place in the chapel in profusion. The ushers were Mr. Milton Brickerd, brother of the groom, and Mr. Birdsey Knowles. Miss Cora Knowles of Bowle, Md., was the bridesmaid, and Mr. William Brickerd, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was handsomely attired in a brown broadcloth traveling suit and carried white chrysanthemums. After the marriage ceremony the relatives and friends of the young couple in attendance assembled at the residence of the bride's father where a recent dianapolis. T. A.
